See, I have gained five more talents.' ²¹ "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' ²² "Also the one who had received the two talents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have gained two more talents.' ²³ "His master said to him,

'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' ²⁴ "And the one also who had received the one talent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you scattered no seed.' ²⁵ 'And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.' ²⁶ "But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I scattered no seed.' ²⁷ 'Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest.' ²⁸ 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.' Luke 19 ¹¹ At this time Jesus was getting close to entering Jerusalem. The crowds that followed him were convinced that God's kingdom realm would fully manifest when Jesus established it in Jerusalem. ¹² So he told them this story to change their perspective: "Once there was a wealthy prince who left his province to travel to a distant land, where he would be crowned king and then return. ¹³ Before he departed he summoned his ten servants together and said, 'I am entrusting each of you with fifty thousand dollars to trade with while I am away. Invest it and put the money to work until I return.' ¹⁴ "Some of his countrymen despised the prince and sent a delegation after him to declare before the royals, 'We refuse to let this man rule over us! He will not be our king!' ¹⁵ "Nevertheless, he was crowned king and returned to his land. Then he summoned his ten servants to see how much each one had earned and what their profits came to. ¹⁶ "The first one came forward and said, 'Master, I took what you gave me and invested it, and it multiplied ten times.' ¹⁷ "Splendid! You have done well, my excellent servant. Because you have shown that you can be trusted in this small matter, I now grant you authority to rule over ten fortress cities.' ¹⁸ "The second came and said, 'Master, what you left with me has multiplied five times.' ¹⁹ "His master said, 'I also grant you authority in my kingdom over five fortress cities.' ²⁰ "Another came before the king and said, 'Master, here is the money you entrusted to me. I hid it for safekeeping.' ²¹ You see, I live in fear of you, for everyone knows you are a strict master and impossible to please. You push us for a high return on all that you own, and you always want to gain from someone else's efforts.' ²² "The king said, 'You wicked servant! I will judge you using your own words. If what you said about me is true, that I am a harsh man, pushing you for a high return and wanting gain from others' efforts, ²³ why didn't you at least put my money in the bank to earn some interest on what I entrusted to you?' ²⁴ "The king said to his other servants, 'Take the money he has and give it to the faithful servant who multiplied my money ten times over.' ²⁵ "But master,' the other servants objected, 'why give it to him? He already has so much!' ²⁶ "Yes,' replied the king. 'But to all who have been faithful, even more will be given them. And for the ones who have nothing, even the little they seem to have will be taken from them.' ²⁷ Now, bring all those rebellious enemies of mine who rejected me as their king—bring them here before me and execute them!"
